3. In the list of witnesses appended to the complaint, the petitioner who is the Chairman of a Nationalised Bank is shown as one of the witnesses.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the transaction between the complainant and the accused is not known to the petitioner as a Chairman of the Bank. Hence his examination is unwarranted and the petitioner has been unnecessarily shown as a witness only to delay the proceedings.

5. The learned counsel for the 1st respondent/complainant on instructions submitted that in the facts and circumstances of the case, the petitioner may not be required to give evidence.

6. From the narration of facts it can be seen that the petitioner as the Chairman of the Bank has no personal knowledge with regard to the alleged transactions between the complainant and the accused. Therefore, this Court is of the view that summoning the petitioner as witness is unwarranted.
